REPORT OF THE FIRE WARDS

During 1951 we answered 19 alarms, one of which was a false alarm. This is an increase over last year although below average for several years previous. We exceeded our budget, but the reason for this was the large expenditure for the forest fire on which we spent $1,037.50. We were reimbursed by the Forestry Department $455.38 but, in spite of this reimbursement, we overran our budget.

We believe the fire department is in excellent condition and we appreciate the loyalty and good service extended not only by the members of the company, but particularly by the employees of the Telephone Company whose cooperation in operating the fire alarm system adds so much to the effectiveness of our department.

Respectfully submitted,

WAR MEMORIAL RECREATION PROGRAM REPORT

The third year of this program found us advanced a long ways from our beginning. The Sand Dam area had been enormously improved by the leveling of the old ice house and grading of a large level play area near the water front. A set of teeters was donated by the local Rebekah lodge, so that it was not necessary to buy any new equipment except for small, inexpensive items as horse shoes, badminton set, and croquet sets. Most of the budget ($800.00) went for salaries, and the results of hiring good instructors was well worth the expense.

Mr. L. P. Howard, Jr., a student at Springfield College, specializing in playground work, was in direct charge of the overall program. He was assisted by Mrs. Robert Caron, a former physical education teacher, and by Mr. Russell McLaughlin, a graduate student at Keene Teachers College, with four years experience as a water safety instructor in the U. S. Coast Guard. Virginia Atkins, Raymond Carlson, Jr., Whalen Dunn, Robert Lammela, and Joseph Merrill served as apprentices.

For the first time, use was made of the town hall, so that an indoor program was available on rainy days.

A Water Carnival, which demonstrated all sorts of water safety measures, such as life saving, row boat and canoe rescue work, brought another successful season to a close. Thanks are to be extended to John and Tauno Koski, who allowed us the use of their rowboat during the entire season, and to Mrs. Margaret Cumings, who very generously loaned her two canoes to make the final week something extra special.

Qualified as Senior Life Savers:

Whalen Dunn

William Glenday

Qualified as Junior Life Savers:

Raymond Carlson	Irma Nelson
Joseph Merrill	Barbara Judd
Gwendolyn Hurst	Elaine Aro
Richard Descoteau	Elizabeth Frazier

A group of teen-age boys and girls also passed a special army pre-induction swimming proficiency test, which included jumping into the water from a 10-foot tower.

For next year, we anticipate adding a jungle gym to the present heavy playground equipment. The Woodbine Rebekah lodge has promised to donate a rowboat for lifeguard duty, and the budget should allow purchase of a canoe. These extra facilities will make it possible for the children to gain experience in all sorts of water front activities, and may be the means of saving their own life, or enabling them to save someone else's life at some future date.

At this time (January 19, 1952), a sum of $200.00 is on deposit at the Keene National Bank to match a similar amount donated by Mr. Henry Lloyd of East Hill and Newton, Mass. This will make it possible to complete the grading project at the Sand Dam, giving us a regular baseball field, tennis courts, and a basketball court. The S. V. Rossi Company has promised to do the work this spring. Difficulties on their Fitzwilliam and Spofford jobs prevented them from doing the grading this fall.

An invitation has been extended to the town of Marlboro, inviting their children to participate in our summer activities with us once or twice a week.

TROY RECREATION PROGRAM

Aquatic activities consisted of instruction and recreation. Instruction was presented through the Red Cross graded system. There were three groups: Beginners, Intermediate, and Advanced. Aquatic programs were scheduled each week, on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday. This phase was limited to three days, in order to maintain interest. Also, it allowed for a more diversified program. The climax to this aquatic phase was a water show presented by the waterfront director, Mr. Russell McLaughlin.

BASEBALL PROGRAM — Objectives in this phase were limited, due to unorganized conditions. There were three teams: boys 10-13, boys 14-16, girls teen age. Available teams were found mainly in Keene. Girls soft ball teams were scarce. Since there were no leagues we could enter, our objectives were to schedule games with what teams were available.

Name	Team	Games	Won	Coach
		Played
Bean Balls	Boys 14-16	5	4	None
Comets	Boys 10-13	7	6	Herb. Silander
Flying Saucers	Girls Teen Age	3	0	L. P. Howard

Assisting in the baseball program were Herbert Silander and Whalen Dunn. The director appreciated the additional time and the enthusiasm which they put into this program. Important to note was the contribution of transportation by Mr. Clinton Royea. The climax to the program was a trip to Boston to see the Red Sox play. Although the game was rained out, the 55 children who went had an enjoyable afternoon in Boston.

HANDICRAFT PROGRAM — in charge of L. P. Howard. Periods were scheduled every Tuesday at 2 p. m., and consisted of wood work, bird houses, book cases, and painting; clay modeling, clay baking, spatter painting. Climax to this program was the exhibit presented on Rally Day.

TEEN AGE PROGRAM — in charge of Mrs. Caron and L. P. Howard — Consisted of tournaments in volley ball, ping-pong, checkers, and basketball. Also scheduled was a mountain climb and picnic. This program was scheduled on Tuesday to coincide with the arts and crafts program at town hall. However, heat forced us to move the program to the Sand Dam. Use of the town hall, therefore, was limited to rainy days.

BEGINNER SWIMMING REPORT — Objectives in this phase were to teach thoroughly the fundamentals of learning to swim. The group was divided into two sections: Section One included new non-swimmers; Section Two included non-swimmers who had received instruction and had learned, but not mastered, fundamental activities such as ducking, floating, etc. This division allowed newcomers to enter classes at any time without disrupting the progress of advanced pupils. Average attendance was 18.

WEEKLY EVENTS — These activities were scheduled once a week, Thursday p. m., as the high-light. Prizes were awarded. Scheduled activities were as follows: Pet Show, Doll and Vehicle Show, Pirate Day, Aquatic Day, Relay Game Program.

PLAYGROUND ACTIVITIES — Use of playground facilities was stressed during morning periods. This program appealed mostly to children under 14 years. Group games, horseshoes, croquet, swings, slides were used. Volley ball and basketball were also included.

I'd like to express my appreciation for the additional assistance volunteered by Joseph Merrill, Robert Lammela, Raymond Carlson, Whalen Dunn, and Virginia Atkins.

(Signed)

Director.

The examinations by the Doctor and Nurse are important to the well being of the child and when notices are sent or taken to the parents, at least some heed should be shown and have the child seen by your own Doctor, Eye Man or Hearing Doctor, as in this way some trouble in later years can be averted.

The Toxoid Clinic was held at the School, also the T. B. Patch Test. A partial Tonsil Clinic was held at Keene Hospital with the parents paying some on the Hospital and Surgeons bills.

School Nurse.

REPORT OF THE HEADMASTER OF THE TROY HIGH SCHOOL

To the Superintendent of Schools :

I herewith submit my first report as principal of the Troy High School.

In February 1951 I assumed the duties vacated by Mr. Peter J. Sperandio who accepted a position in Bridgewater, Mass.

Coming into a strange school in the middle of the year is a difficult task. I wish to express sincere appreciation for the spirit with which the teachers and pupils accepted me. The help and interest of every teacher did much to keep the school functioning smoothly. The support given me by the school board and school superintendent has been of utmost importance.

In May 1951 every member of the high school was given the Iowa Educational Development Tests. These tests are designed to provide a measurement of the pupil's level of development and also provides data to evaluate our high school program. The results of these tests, along with other data, has provided our teacher's study group, material with which to judge our program and, through staff meetings, develop and improve school conditions. We have met regularly every two weeks for the express purpose of integrating our offerings. Results of these meetings have been expressed in the origin of Student Government Elections of a realistic nature, including the participation of every pupil in the high school. The town voting booths were used and voting, campaigning, etc. included in realistic setting. Also evolving out of staff cooperation and study came the introduction of a Halloween Festival. Overwhelming support and help of the entire community made this affair one which will surely continue.

As is the case all over our country, Troy has the problem of reading difficulty. Some pupils just cannot obtain competency in reading in the time available in our regular classes.

We have introduced some part time remedial reading classes for these children but no full time teacher is available for a good program. It is hoped that in the near future one will be made available for this specific purpose.

The double session program which has been predicted is now a reality with the high school attending school from 8:00 a. m. until 1:00 p. m. and the junior high attending from 12:20 until 5:15 p. m. This program is functioning as well as can be expected under such adverse conditions. I sincerely hope that some other solution can be found for the lack of space as the education needs of our youth are suffering. As long as this over-crowded condition exists the educational program will be very limited in its offerings. We owe it to our youth to do something about this immediately.

ATHLETICS

The limited facilities have not changed in Troy, consequently the very inadequate athletic program remains unchanged. Basketball is the winter sport and the only means by which any physical education is provided at all. Girls as well as boys participate in interscholastic competition. No showers are available at the town hall, which is our basketball court. This provides an ideal environment for an unhealthy situation rather than a healthy one.

During the spring we have a baseball program which includes all interested pupils. Softball is provided for the girls. The field upon which we play is fair for this size school but the distance from the school makes it inconvenient to reach. The field was declared in a wooded area and closed to use for nearly two weeks in the spring because of fire hazards. The baseball schedule is becoming larger each year and this last year included twelve games. In spite of this expanded schedule we still are not providing an adequate physical education program for our youth. Every child regardless of ability should experience the health and social benefits of a school program of physical education.

The future education development of Troy children depends in a good measure on either a cooperative school structure or an addition to our present school plant of a gymnasium-auditorium, library and other facilities. I sincerely hope that our children may, in the not too distant future, have the benefits of these modern facilities.

Respectfully submitted,
 CORRIDON F. TRASK JR.,
 Principal.

REPORT OF DIRECTOR OF MUSIC

The music program in the high school has taken on added significance this past year, due mainly to Mr. Trask's interest in the value of music as an integral part of general education. This interest shown by the administration has in turn, reflected a marked improvement in attitude of the pupils.

In previous years, the high school music program consisted of one period of music per week. This year, there is one period of "general music," in which nearly the entire student body participates, and a period of music devoted to chorus. The chorus consists of thirty-three pupils.

The junior high is industriously engrossed in the effort of organizing a band. A total of 20 pupils have indicated a desire to take lessons on one instrument or another. At this writing, five are taking lessons; three on trumpet, one on clarinet and one on trombone. All are doing exceptionally well.

The wholehearted cooperation afforded me by the principal and faculty is continually a source of inspiration and a cause for eternal appreciation.

Respectfully submitted,
 CECIL B. NASH,
 Director of Music.

REPORT OF THE SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS

When school opened Sept. 5, 1951 in Troy, the pupils, teachers and parents faced a new experience in the time schedule for classes. Due to an increased enrollment in the upper grades, plus an expansion of the curriculum to provide for additional educational opportunities in home economics, art, music and social studies; there were not enough classrooms to accommodate all pupils during the usual school day.

The proposition of sending one or more classes to Keene proved unpopular; so pending the outcome of the proposed co-operative high school project, a double session was started in Troy. The first six grades of elementary school and the high school attended school at about the usual time; but the junior high classes attended in the afternoon when the high school pupils had left the building. While this arrangement was not ideal, it has been satisfactory for the present and may have to be continued until a permanent solution is found.

During the past two years a program of repairing and modernization has been in progress on the school building and grounds. Several worn-out floors have been replaced with rubber tile and old desks have been replaced with movable, modern furniture. Many rooms were painted during the summer and modern lighting installed in three rooms. This program should be continued from year to year until the entire building is in good condition.

Every effort has been made to provide Troy pupils with a sound education but even now with the double session; the home economics, art and reading program is handicapped due to lack of classroom space. The time is rapidly approaching when the school building cannot possibly hold all of the pupils of Troy, and a choice between Keene, consolidation or a building addition in Troy is inevitable.

CHARLES L. BOWLBY,
Supt. of Schools.

REPORT OF THE MUSIC SUPERVISOR

I herein submit my report concerning the elementary music program in the school. The aim of the music program is to develop a love and appreciation of good music and the desire to participate spontaneously in group work, both vocal and instrumental. A comprehensive course is given, starting with note singing in the first grade and covering the prescribed fundamentals in each grade through the eighth. An opportunity is given for each pupil to play in a rhythm band in the lower grades and in a tonette band in the intermediate grades. Folk dancing also is part of the music program as well as is music appreciation.

A Christmas program was presented at the Town Hall as well as a Memorial Day program. Large and appreciative audiences were in attendance at both occasions. Tonette bands had their first opportunity to perform at these events. An operetta is now in preparation which will include grades one through six.

The pupils are enthusiastic and appreciative of all phases of the music program. I find the record library available in the Union office, to be of real benefit to the pupils of the school.

Sincerely,

AZALEA WILSON,

Elementary Music Supervisor.

REPORT OF THE SUPERVISOR OF ART EDUCATION

Art expression is a graphic indication of individual growth and helps children to learn to think out their problems logically. No picture, no matter how youthfully simple, was ever produced without vision, imagination, analysis, persistence to see it done and at last the deep, happy sense of accomplishment. It is only with repeated accomplishment that every child attains the dignity of, and the pride in, his very own personality.

Art expression is impossible without sincerity. Even the simplest drawing by a first grader is a search for truth—an honest expression of the world as it looks to the young child.

It is through the arts that vision is developed, that cooperation with, and appreciation for, other human beings and nature, is learned.

In teaching the many phases of art, we work to develop the critical eye, and the analytical mind. We seek problems to challenge ingenuity and inventiveness and yet encourage and inspire the children. As time goes on, we hope that the art department will prove useful to every area of school and community life.

Below are listed the various techniques introduced this year to the school pupils from grade one through high school.

Charcoal drawing	Panel decoration
Soap carving	Poster design
Clay modelling	Linoleum block printing
Papier mache	Wire jewelry
Watercolor	Stencil
Tempera	Color study
Fingerpainting	Elements of design

In conclusion, we may state that art is perhaps the most enjoyable hand work in education and has a character building element which offers a sound basis for the joy of living.

ROSE VESELAK LAND,
Art Supervisor.

STATUS OF COOPERATIVE SCHOOL STUDY

At the annual school district meeting in March, 1951; a sum of money was appropriated to continue the study of a co-operative school system as an answer to the problem of providing a better educational system for the youth of Troy. Furthermore, it was voted that a committee be appointed to carry on this work.

Your committee has met periodically with similar committees from other towns in an attempt to develop a workable program that would meet the educational needs of the several communities better than existing programs.

It is recognized by leading educators as well as many citizens that pooling of our resources and consolidating our school system can result in substantial educational benefits. The several committees unanimously support this general principle.

To put into practise this general principle requires certain conditions, summarized briefly as follows:

1. A desire by the voters of the various existing school districts to cooperate all or part of their districts.
2. A group of districts that can benefit by consolidation.
3. A group of districts that have a combined adjusted valuation sufficient to support a cooperative district.

4. Legislation that will permit and encourage the (1) desire, (2) need, and (3) ability to be brought together in a workable program.

Unfortunately, the Cooperative School Districts Law, enacted by the 1951 Legislature, has certain provisions that block the development of a satisfactory cooperative program at this time. These provisions are as follows:

1. Apportionment of costs of all capital outlay shall be based upon the proportion which a district's adjusted valuation bears to the total aggregate adjusted valuation of the cooperative school district. Theoretically, this is a sound method of apportioning capital costs. In practise, it means that a town like Dublin would have an annual debt service cost of about $200.00 per pupil with Troy and Marlboro at the other extreme, at about $47.00 per pupil. Consequently, Dublin, Harrisville and Rindge are discouraged due to this unreasonable cost per pupil.

2. Operating costs may be apportioned according to adjusted valuation or according to number of pupils and adjusted valuation weighted equally. If one-half the operating expenses are apportioned according to number of pupils and one-half according to adjusted valuation, the operating costs for some towns would be up to two times what it would be for others. The reaction in towns carrying the heavier burden is not favorable toward a cooperative system.

3. Restriction on borrowing power. In our case it was the opinion of the committees that, as a first step toward an eventual cooperative system, we should first attempt to set up a secondary system including grades 7 through 12. In accordance with the present law, the districts embraced by such a cooperative are limited in their borrowing to four percent of their aggregate assessed value of about $13,880,000. Four percent of this figure is about $556,000. Competent engineers have estimated that our building program would cost about $750,000. Obviously, we are stymied in financing this proposed project.

Faced with the above obstacles the various committees have agreed that at the annual March school district meetings the above facts should be thoroughly discussed, followed by a vote to see if the towns would accept the idea of joining with other towns to form a cooperative school district, providing the State law permitted financing on a more equitable basis with respect to cost per pupil. If the State law were changed to allow capital outlay one-half on the basis of adjusted valuation and one-half on the basis of number of pupils, the estimated cost per pupil for each town would be brought within a narrow range, $350 per pupil to $426 being the extremes including cost of debt service. If most of the towns voted in favor of the cooperative plan on these conditions there would be opportunity during the legislative session of 1953 to offer convincing reasons for a more flexible law that would be applicable to our special circumstances and emphasize the extreme need for State Financial Aid.

THE PROPOSED TROY SCHOOL ADDITION

The addition will be constructed with masonry exterior walls. Interior walls will be masonry except in classrooms where the walls will be of frame construction to permit easy changes in sizes of these rooms.

Except for the stage, floors of all floors will be concrete laid on the ground and covered with asphalt tile, including the gymnasium. The floors of the locker rooms will be concrete covered with a rubber base paint. The stage floor will be finished in wood.

Ceilings in general will be covered with insulating board using both sheets and tiles. Classroom windows will include a vision strip of steel sash, probably with glass blocks above. Gymnasium windows will be steel.

The gymnasium-auditorium will be frames with laminated wooden arch trusses, which give maximum economy together with height. Steel truss for gymnasiums is not available under allotments. A kitchen is adjacent to the gym-auditorium so that the latter may serve as a lunchroom.

The gymnasium has a basketball court 50 ft. by 75 ft. and the bleachers will provide seats for 400 spectators. When used as an auditorium, 700 chairs can be placed on the floor. For banquet purposes 450 people can be seated at tables at one time. This room thus serves as a fine community center.

In order to make the addition of more service to the school and to the community, it is desired that the library committee and town agree to supplying funds so that the library becomes part of the new addition. The savings in light, fuel and janitor services would be considerable and the availability of the library to the pupils and public would be increased.

The estimated cost today for this construction, plus preparation of plans, supervision of construction and preparation of site would be approximately $167,000.

The total extra cost to the community for amortization of the bond issue and added cost of a physical education program, would be approximately $14,000 yearly. Of this sum $10,000 would constitute capital outlay on a 20-year bond issue.
